Intro B w/ thirds going up F# B E F#

B 9 F# A9 E

He said to her I'd like a cheeseburger, and I might like a milkshake as well

B9 F# A9 E

She said to him, "I can't give you either," And he said, "Isn't this Burger Bell?"

D#- G#- E F#

She said, "Yes it is, but we're closed now, But we open tomorrow at ten."

G#- F# E F#

He said, "I am extremely hungry, But I guess I can wait until then."

Chorus

B F# B F#

Cuz you're his cheeseburger, His yummy cheeseburger

E F#

He'll wait for you. Ya! He'll wait for you.

B F# B F#

Oh, you are his cheeseburger His tasty cheeseburger

E F#

He'll wait for you, oh, he will wait for you.

B intro

He stayed at the drive-thru til sunrise, He may have dozed off once or twice

When he spotted a billboard for Denny's, Bacon and eggs for half price!

How could he resist such an offer? He really needed something to munch

Cheeseburger, please do not get angry, He'll eat and be back here for lunch!

Cuz you're his cheeseburger, his precious cheeseburger

Be back for you, he'll be back for you.

Won't be so long, cheeseburger, oh, lovely cheeseburger

Be back for you, oh, he'll be back for you.

A Million Years

Words and Music: Rich Mullins, Mark Robertson, Mitch McVicker

Time doesn't scare me
No I'm not impressed by time
In the scheme of eternity
Millennia don't seem to be worth much more than a dime
Except for the love that you find in it
Every minute's worth its weight in gold
Whether you're a million years young, or a million years old

(Chorus)

And if I'm still around a million years from now
If I'd been around a million years ago
Every thing I've learned or forgotten, imagined or come to know
Would disappear into the moment, I found that love would not give out
Even if I'm still around another million years from now

And change doesn't scare me
No I'm not impressed by change
In the light of reality
These fads are just fallacies
And they all get washed away
Except for the change that brings me closer
To the love that always proves
As current as tomorrow or as ancient as the truth

(Chorus)

And if I'm still around a million years from now
If I'd been around a million years ago
Every thing I've learned or forgotten, imagined or come to know
Would disappear into the moment, I found that love would not give out

Even if I'm still around another million years from now

(Bridge)

All the way-back-when's and ever after's

Spin their wheels

And love looks back

And laughs at them from yet another million years

(Chorus)

And if I'm still around a million years from now

If I'd been around a million years ago

Every thing I've learned or forgotten, imagined or come to know

Would disappear into the moment, I found that love would not give out

Even if I'm still around another million years from now

"A Million Years"

Mullins, Robertson, McVicker

Mark writes:

I can do a diagram, but I don't have time to tab it all out. Here goes...

(intro) E, D

(verse) E, F#m, G#m7, A

E, D, F#m, B

A* (see note below), C (leave the B string open), F#m, B, E, Esus, E

(chorus) A*, E, A*, C#m, A*, G#m7, A*, B, C#m, G#m, A, G#m, F#maj,
A*, B, E, Esus, E

(2nd verse) SAME AS FIRST

(2nd chorus) SAME AS FIRST

(bridge) A*, E, D, F#m, B, A*, E, A*, E

(chorus) SAME

(tag) C#m, G#m7

Note: I play all the A chords the same...this fingering makes it work in major and minor, and I just liked the way it sounded...it goes like this:

LOW E STRING: MUTED

A STRING: OPEN

D STRING: SECOND FINGER, SECOND FRET

G STRING: THIRD FINGER, SECOND FRET

B STRING: OPEN

HIGH E STRING: OPEN

For some reason, taking out the third made the chord sound less happy. I do that alot. When you take the third out, it tends to emphasize the second, which isn't strongly major or minor, and I like that. Come to think of it, the B chords are very similar to the A* chords... leave the high B and E open.

Hope that helps. I'm sure I could've made a mistake, so if you have any questions, feel free to ask and I'll do my best to help.

The Missing Link

Words and Music: Mark Robertson

C7#9

Religion, evolution, original sin

Too much monkey business for me to be involved in

All I know is I know too much to ever walk away

C

And I'd swear I can feel Your touch, though it can't be true they say

G

G#

Still I got a lot more questions than answers these days

C

Won't you help me find the missing link

I'm gonna walk on the water until I sink

C (lick) G

C

Help me find the missing link

Dianetics, metaphysics, psychotherapy

That voodoo that you do, just never worked on me

All I know is a Voice called out and I've never been the same

And the darkness in me brightened at the sound of Your name

Philosophy can't raise the dead, or heal the blind or lame

Won't You help me find the missing link

'Cause I think therefore I am (I think)

Help me find the missing link

Solo

A C G# G C7#9

Perfection, rejection, the comfort of friends
Will I still be faithful when temptation sets in
All I know is the path is straight and not so very wide
But I never was too good at coloring inside the lines
Will You open up Your gates for me, and let me come inside?

Won't You help me find the missing link
I'm gonna walk on the water until I sink
To a blind man a nod's as good as a wink
So here's mud in your eye, living water to drink
Help me find the missing link
